1. International Journal of Productivity and Performance Management
Online from: 2004
Subject Area: Performance Management and Measurement
Aims to address new developments and thinking in productivity science, and performance measurement and management including new techniques, approaches and related reflective analysis designed to improve individual, group and organisational performance. It seeks to develop an understanding in and across manufacturing, service, public and third sector organisations. The journal aims to be multi-disciplinary drawing from, amongst others, the fields of Operations & Supply Chain Management, Marketing, Accounting, Human Resource Management and Organisational Behaviour.
2. Measuring Business Excellence
Full text online
Provides international insights into non-financial ways to measure and manage business performance improvements and company's value creation dynamics. Measuring Business Excellence will enable you to apply best practice, implement innovative thinking and learn how to use different practices. Learn how to use innovative frameworks, approaches and practices for understanding, assessing and managing the strategic value drivers of business excellence. MBE publishes both rigorous academic research and insightful practical experiences about the development and adoption of assessment and management models, tools and approaches to support excellence and value creation of 21st century organizations both private and public.
3. Team Performance Management
Online from: 1995
Subject Area: Performance Management and Measurement
This international journal contributes to the successful implementation and development of work teams and team-based organizations by providing a forum for sharing experience and learning to stimulate thought and transfer of ideas. It seeks to bridge the gap between research and practice by publishing articles where the claims are evidence-based and the conclusions have practical value.
